THE class of 1934 will be remembered as the class that started things and did things. This year's graduates indeed deserve this compliment for all their accomplishments.

The literary and dramatic ability of the members is especially high. The literary magazine, published largely by seniors, was an extraordinarily fine one. It contained opinions and ideas on student problems as well as short stories and poetry. The El Gato had a great success under senior direction. In dramatic events of the year, the seniors figured prominently. The Dramatic Club, with the seniors at the head, has sponsored some very fine programs. With much zest and color, the class play, "Quality Street" was presented by a group of talented seniors. Although a difficult play to perform, the cast managed an excellent production which has been praised far and near.

The class includes an unusually large group of honor students. Many of these students have had their names placed on the honor roll every term during the four years. The class is indeed proud of this record.

When these seniors were Sophomores they did a splendid thing for the future of the school by inaugurating the first Sophomore party in the history of the institution. Since then it bids fair to become a custom.

This senior class contains an enterprising group of musically talented students. The Girls' instrumental trio and the Boys' vocal trio are especially noteworthy.

Do not think that this class lacks in athletic ability; indeed some of the finest football players that this school has seen came from this senior group. While the boys have figured prominently in all sports the girls too have done their part.

The Class of 1934 has been happy here and feels deep regret on leaving the Los Gatos High School.

THIS year's Junior Class has upheld the high standards set by previous classes in a manner of which we are proud. There have been members of this class in almost every activity in the school from the debate teams, glee clubs, orchestras, and clubs to all varieties of athletics. The Junior Girls won both the Hockey and Basketball championships. The Junior Boys won the Football-Brawl and that race of races, the Saratoga Relay. They set a new time record in the latter as well as being the only team to win the race three years in succession.

The Junior Play, "Skidding," an amusing comedy, was a great success from both a financial and dramatic standpoint, and the entire Student Body was proud of it.

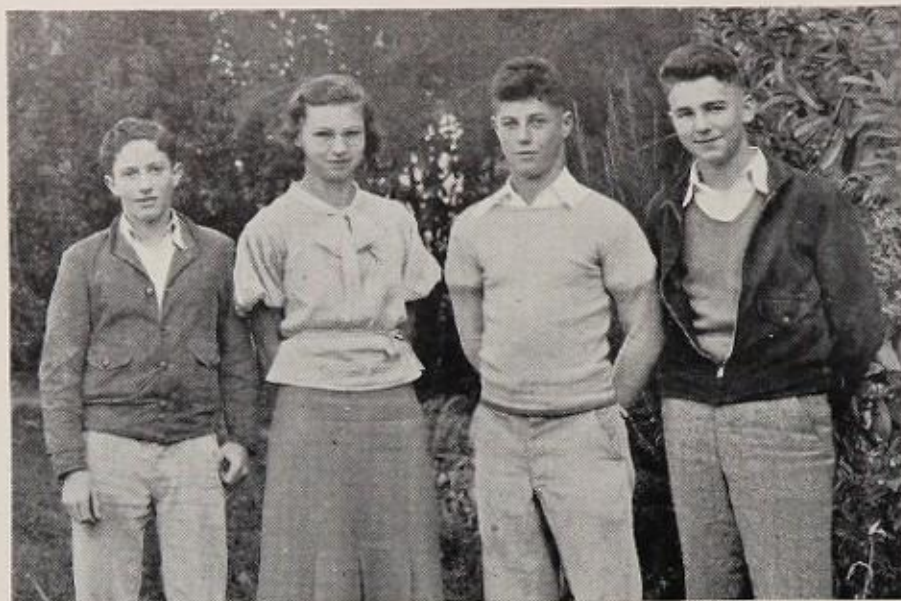

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet held on May 4, was very successful. The airplane was the motif in decoration and the toasts and entertainment followed out this idea. Later in the evening dancing was enjoyed in the library.

And now our third year at Los Gatos Union High is nearly completed, and, feeling that it has been very successful, we look forward to our Senior year with high hopes and ambitions.

WE, THE jolly Sophomores, extend our congratulations to the class of '34. We hope to be there ourselves in another two years.

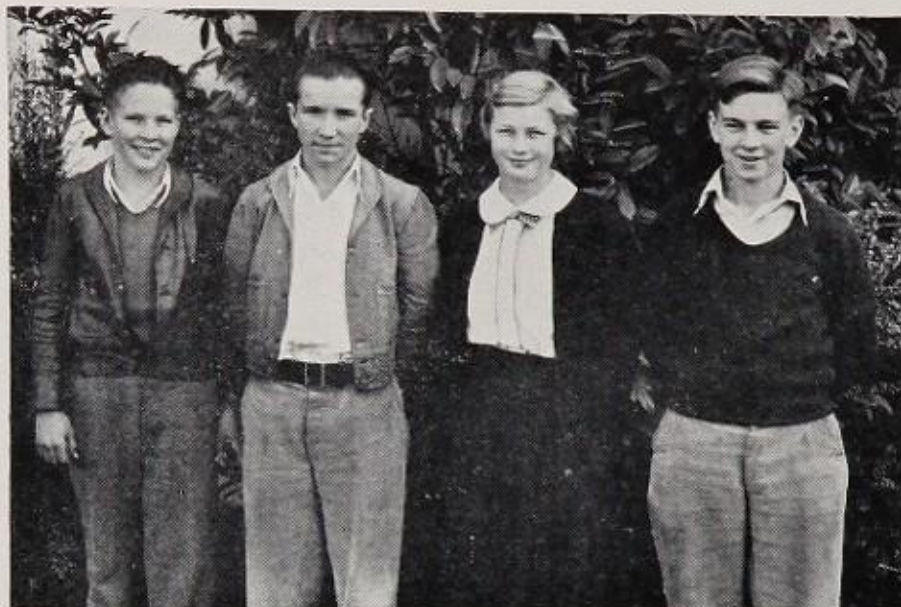

This year has been a noteworthy one in our class history. In student body government we have taken a prominent part. Our athletes have returned from the fields scratched and bruised but covered with glory. Some of us have taken important parts in Dramatic Club productions. One of our members is an officer in the Girls' League, while another has bravely joined the ranks of the Debate Squad. We have lifted our voices in sweet music for the Glee Clubs. Socially we have distinguished ourselves by giving the second Sophomore party ever to be held in the history of the school.

By and large, we've done our share, and we are eagerly looking forward to even more prominence in our Junior year.

THE Class of 1937 is approaching the end of the year in which they were humble freshmen. (Or were they really humble?) At any rate the class is by far the largest ever to enter this high school, and by the size of the freshman honor roll, it will be seen that we have begun well in our studies.

In other activities too, our members have taken part, gaining entrance to the Dramatic and other clubs, working in athletics, the council, and Girls' League. In various ticket sales we have worried the other classes when we took the lead. Moreover we were the first class ever to give a Freshman Class party.

Next fall we shall come back to take our places as strong Sophomores, and we hope to prove again that we are a class to be proud of.

WE, THE class of '38, upon entering High School just last February have found it very different from what we expected. To some of us it was quite a shock when, having just graduated from grammar school, we came straight to High School with only two days between in which to think about it.

We were rather bewildered the first day or two, with our mixed up programs and muddled brains, trying to figure out whether fifth period comes third or just before 4th lunch. That first day was just one series of mistakes after another.

But by now we all are settled down to our various routines and it won't be long before we'll have the upperclassmen sitting up and taking notice.

THIS year's campaign for Student Body officers was very successful, with two very good tickets and two excellent platforms. This year's colors and the tickets were changed to Black and Orange, instead of the traditional Red and White.

Posters and banners were placed along the halls, in the locker rooms, and on the trees surrounding the school. The Black ticket even advertised on the front lawn by spelling out the word, Black, with crepe paper. Literature acclaiming the merits of all the candidates was passed out freely to all who would accept it. And of course campaign speeches were given at the Annual Political Assembly.

Both sides fostered programs for a turf, a new constitution, a boys' organization, and several other planks for the benefit of the student body.

An excellent group of officers was selected as a result of the splendid work of the campaign managers, the ability of the candidates, and the fine platforms of both tickets, for as usual, a split ticket was voted in.

THE "New Deal" applies to the government of the United Students of the Los Gatos Union High School as well as to the government of the United States. The Board of Trustees has completed the athletic field with a new cinder track, sprinkling system, football turf, and jumping pits. The Council of Representatives donated five hundred dollars towards this long-needed project.

A Student Body dance was held again this year. Due to the fact that the floor was to be re-surfaced the dance was held in the gymnasium. The decorating committee did a splendid piece of work in decorating the gymnasium and a very good orchestra was secured by the committee. The dance proved to be highly successful and it is hoped that student dances will be held more often.

In order to eliminate a confusing situation the Student Body voted to change the school colors from Red and White to Black and Orange.

The establishment of a Student Court was another important innovation of the student body government. The court, consisting of three judges, was given jurisdiction over the offenders against the rules and regulations of the Building and Grounds Commission. The court has been successful in handling a difficult situation and it is the sincere hope of the present student administration that the student judiciary will continue to operate successfully in the future.

UNDER the direction of Mrs. Robertson, their officers, and cabinet, the members of the Girls' League engaged in a number of productive activities this year.

During the football season they enlarged their treasury funds by selling apples and doughnuts at the games; and later, during the basketball and track meet season, by selling hot dogs and soda pop.

With the proceeds of these sales the Girls' League refurnished the rest room with new curtains, a rug, screen, and mirror.

At Christmas time the League collected money for the local Red Cross, and also food and clothing which was distributed in Los Gatos, Willow Glen, and Saratoga.

In the springtime the Girls' League held their annual Hi Jinx, at which they used a radio broadcast theme for the decorations, program, and costumes.

THE Elementary Orchestra has done excellent work this year and many of its members have shown considerable talent.

The group has been so large this year that it has been divided into a string orchestra and a band under the direction of W. McDuffie. This group played during several of the Assembly programs, and also for one of the basketball games.

The elementary orchestra presented several programs during the year and really showed great possibilities for the future..

The department of music as a whole can boast of three trios and a brass quartet, which have contributed numbers for many programs both in the school and in the community.

DAY by day our high school orchestra has improved, and day by day we grow to appreciate it even more than before.

Directed by the able baton of Mr. Hayward many programmes have been made more enjoyable by the music of this advanced group. They have played for the Junior and Senior plays, for the opening of night school, for Music Week, Class Night, and Commencement.

The outstanding programmes of the advanced orchestra were the annual Christmas and Spring concerts. At the latter they rose far above former high school orchestras in their performance, and were heartily applauded by a most enthusiastic audience. Their rendition of such numbers as the "Oberon Overture," by C. M. von Weber, and the First movement from Dvorak's "New World Symphony" will not soon be forgotten. Included also on this programme were Selections from Gounod's "Faust," the Introduction to the Third Act of Wagner's "Lohengrin," and Tschaikowski's "Andante Cantabile" for string orchestra.

The orchestra is proud of the fact that for the last five seasons it has sent a representative to the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan. Last summer three members attended that camp.

With the move to new quarters in the old building the music department as a whole was able to expand, with more storage room, an office and several individual practice rooms.

Mark Gazse held the office of president of the orchestra organization, with Grant Ewald as Secretary-treasurer.

WITH the largest enrollment in its history, the Dramatic Club enjoyed a full and profitable year under the guidance of the dramatic coach, Miss Douglas, and the president. Under a new system of competitive tryouts, new members were admitted in September and February, keeping the enrollment to sixty members or more throughout the year.

A unique feature of the Christmas play this year was that every member of the club took part either in the staging and costuming or actual playing of the production, "Sounding Brass."

"The Bishop's Candlesticks," a one-act play, was presented in assembly under the direction of James Fitzgerald, cadet teacher.

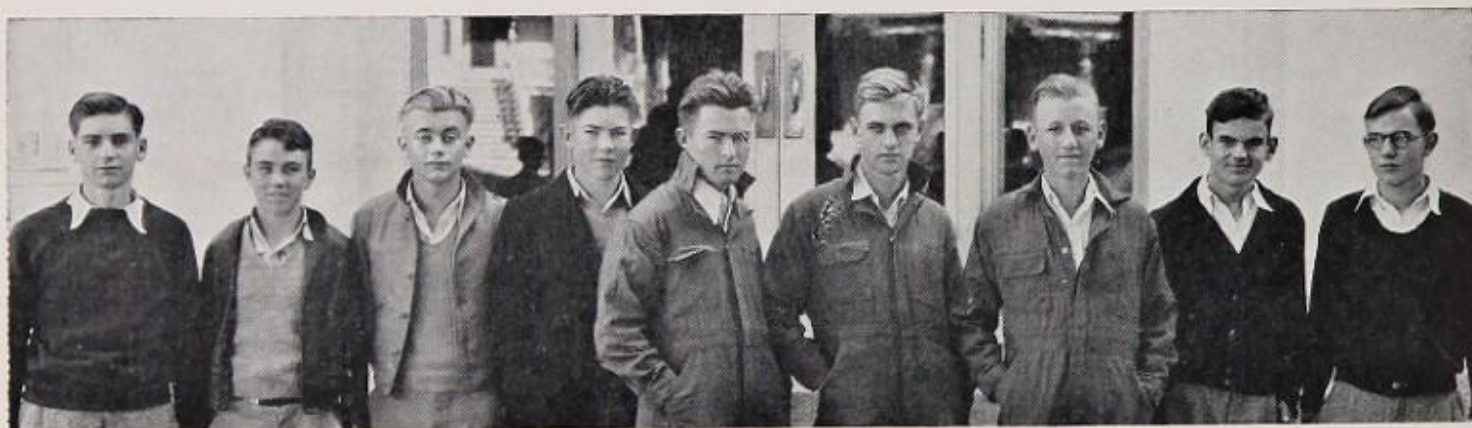

Several of the club members journeyed to San Francisco in February to see the famous Katherine Cornell play in "Romeo and Juliet."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duffy presented the club with a stage set that was enthusiastically welcomed and has been used several times already. The club was also fortunate in having the use of the switch-board formerly used in Los Gatos pageants.

The Junior Play

THE STAGE CREW

The Senior Play

"Skidding"

ON THE evening of November 17, everybody in the High School Auditorium viewed, with rollicking laughter, the "Skidding" of the Hardy family.

Lloyd Nelson kept the house in an uproar of laughter with his excellent portrayal of Andy Hardy, an average 17 year old nuisance about the house. Dean Atwood, in the role of Wayne Trenton, III, made a fine opposite to Irene Stump, cast as Marion Hardy. Judge Hardy, played by Thoburn Merritt, gave an excellent portrayal of the average small town judge who tried to teach his wife, played by Flavilla Maddox, the ups and downs of politics. Judge Hardy's live wire, boisterous campaign manager was well put over by Wayne Atkinson, while pathos was brought into the play by John Canuel as Grandpa Hardy.

Eleanor McLean and Lorraine Wilcox, cast respectively as Estelle Hardy Wilcox and Myra Hardy Wilcox, brought in very amusing complications through their matrimonial troubles, while the balance wheel of the Hardy family was the character of Aunt Milly, an old maid school teacher, capitably done by Peggy Lucier.

A character unusual in a high school play was that of Estelle's little son, played by three year old Robert Lucier.

"Quality Street"

THE play chosen this year was J. M. Barrie's famous "Quality Street." The finer points and delicate shadings were helpfully brought out by the main characters, Olivia de Havilland as Phoebe Throssel, Betty Bedford as her elder sister, Susan Throssel, and Tex Whalen as Captain Valentine. A period play, most of the action took place in the blue and white living room of the Misses Throssel, on Quality Street. Miss Susan, the elder sister, was a confirmed spinster, whose main object in life was her sister Phoebe's happiness. The dashing young captain, Valentine Brown, was a frequent visitor to the home before his enlistment to fight the Corsican ogre, Napoleon.

Three other spinster residents of Quality Street were the Misses Willoughby and Miss Henrietta Turnbull, convincingly played by Amelia Baines, Anise Walton, and Dorothy Tonietti. The maid, whose confidences brought the play to a climax, was portrayed by Dorothy Wilson. Robert Wilson as the Sergeant, Helen George as Charlotte Parratt, and Oliver Allen and Bob Bingham as Lieutenants Blades and Spicer, added quaint atmospheric touches.

A great deal of the charm and beauty of the play is owed to Helen Robertson, in charge of the costumes, and to Winifred Jean Smith and Helen Stanley who furnished the blue and white room. But the greatest credit for the success of the play goes, as usual, to Miss Margaret Douglas, dramatic coach, who directed the play and kept in order the boisterous seniors who made up the unusually large play cast.

THE fourth year of El Gato's life proved to be one of great activity. Written and published by the senior journalism class, it has provided for the student body an accurate record of school news, and, for its authors, a valuable education in newspaper work.

Published biweekly, each edition of El Gato was edited, under the supervision of the editor-in-chief, by each member of the class in turn. This member was assisted by an advisory committee, and thus every journalism student was able to take an active part in the work and to learn, through actual experience, the work of editing a paper.

Several members of the class attended the two California High School Press Association conferences held at Stanford University on November 5, and at the University of California, on April 6, and 7. There lectures and discussions on newspaper writing and make-up aided journalistic students in solving their own school paper's problems.

A social committee composed of Eva Melani, Sue Stanfield, Winifred Jean Smith, Watson Poole, and Hamilton White, was appointed early in the year to plan hikes, picnics, and other affairs at which the class could celebrate the successful publication of another paper.

The Debate Team

Mr. G. Bruntz, I. Stump, H. Hanchett, T. Gibb, B. Bedford, D. Alford, R. Perrotti

WITH the exception of one member, the debating team this year was composed of new material. Irene Stump, Tallulah Gibb, Hilda Hanchett, Robert Perotti, Dorothy Alford, and Betty Bedford were selected after the tryouts last fall and they participated in the first round of debates. The first question of the year was "Resolved: that the British system of radio control is superior to the American system." Even though the league rule this year was that there should be no decisions, a decision debate was held with Bellarmine in which both our affirmative and negative teams won. Non-decision debates were held with Girls' High, San Mateo, and Sequoia.

With the second question, "Resolved: that non-decision debates should be held in this league," two new members were added, David Hibbs and Earl Melone. There was only one debate held on this question, in which the Los Gatos negative team contested with Santa Cruz, and the affirmative with San Jose.

An extra question taken up by the team this year was "Resolved: that Dictatorship is superior to democracy." These later debates were decision debates held with San Mateo, San Jose, and Girls' High School in San Francisco, and were all won by Los Gatos.

Although not a member of the debate team, Willard Stockton, speaking on law enforcement, won honors for Los Gatos High School when he took first place in the High School Oratorical Contest, which is annually held at Stanford and is sponsored by the Peninsula Debate League. His award, together with the debate victories, brought the Debate Championship to Los Gatos for the third time.

LOS GATOS again took second place in the Valley League, losing the championship to their old rivals Mountain View. At the beginning of the 1933 football season Los Gatos saw nothing less than the championship, and Coach Helm said that Gatos had the strongest team that had been in the league for five years. Coach scheduled the first practice games with Santa Cruz, which the "Cats" took with little effort. But Mountain View still had the Indian sign on the "Cats," which enabled the "Eagles" to win the game.

The squad worked doubly hard and made a comeback, winning the second league game by two touchdowns. The biggest and the last game of the year which was played with Santa Clara, ended in a tie.

All football fans will remember the outstanding runs of David Gutierrez and the power drives of David Anderson. Without Captain Clarence Borzone and Lawrence Whalen to back up the line, the score of more than one game would have been different. Louis Sporleder, the "Cats" speedy end, recovered many fumbles for Los Gatos. The center, Thomas Carmichael, and the two tackles, Robert Nelson and David Hibbs, broke through the line many times to throw our opponents for a loss.

Through the efforts of these men as well as the other members of the team Los Gatos scored ninety-two points against their opponents' forty-two.

UNTIL the last of the season Los Gatos was favored to win the championship because of an impressive record in the first half of the league games. However, the best laid plans often go wrong and what had seemed the best team was finally defeated.

The "Wildcats" lost their first game to Campbell, but this did not dishearten them, for they defeated Live Oak in their next game by a big score. The following Friday they came up against Mt. View and lost. With the championship so near at hand the boys went into the next to the last game, which was with Campbell, determined to win, but they met Campbell when she was "hot" and Los Gatos lost by a score of 45-13. This was the team's last chance for the championship.

Throughout the season the boys worked hard and they supported Coach Helm in everything that he prepared for them. They had the fighting spirit and team work which builds real teams.

THE above picture represents the pride of Los Gatos High School, the undefeated Wildcat Track Team of 1934.

Los Gatos has won every dual track meet this year, winning over Live Oak, Fremont, Mt. View, Santa Clara, and Campbell.

In the King City invitational meet, Gene Rugani broke his former record in the 440, the winning time being 53.3. His former record time, established in 1933, was 53.8. Dave Anderson also won first place at King City in the football throw, his distance being 186 feet.

The last day of the track season found Los Gatos champions in the 110, 120, and unlimited divisions. Many records were broken, among them the 110 high jump, by D. Ruiz, who jumped 5 feet 1 inch. Except for the relay D. Ruiz made all the points for the 110 division. The 120 relay record was broken. A. Donatello, also of the 120's, broke the shot record with 50 feet 1 inch. In the unlimiteds S. Imura made a new record in the pole vault of 11 feet. D. Anderson broke the Valley League record in the 440, by a time of 53.4 seconds.

HOCKEY was an outstanding sport among the girls this year, for it captured the largest turnout in the school's history of this sport. The Freshmen had two full teams, and the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors had one team each. The cold November winds did not bother the girls, for they were so interested in the game that even the cold could not stop them. Their main objects—and these accounted for the great interest shown, were: to score the greatest number of points at the hockey sports play day with Campbell, Palo Alto, and San Jose; and second, to struggle for the interclass championship.

Finally the Big Game was a battle between the Seniors and Juniors. In spite of the Senior's valiant struggles the Juniors became the champions with a score of 2-1.

The success of this very popular sport was due to the interest and help of the Hockey Manager, Leila D. Merritt, and the enthusiastic support always given by Miss Baird. The Hockey captains were: Helen Robertson, Senior; Margaret Platner, Junior; Phyllis Paske, Sophomore; and Denny Robertson, Freshman.

Bottom Row. M. Lepurin, R. Bensberg, G. Cavallini, F. Towner, M. Cline, J. Nelson, D. Tonietti

THIS is the first year that the girls have had three tennis ladders. Those players who are on top of the Doubles Ladder are: M. Lepurin, and L. Lacerda. The Freshman Singles Ladder is headed by R. Roberts and the Unlimited Singles Ladder by D. Tonietti.

Many week ends have been filled with exciting tournaments against Palo Alto, San Jose, Campbell, Santa Clara, and Fremont. The girls have faithfully played their two matches a week; this leads the winner of the matches to the top of the ladder.

Miss Baird has received expert coaching from Mr. Hudson of the Berkeley Club, and the girls have profited greatly by her knowledge of and interest in the game.

JUNIORS and Sophomores competed for highest basketball honors this year, with the Seniors not far behind. The Juniors won the Junior—Senior game, 16-13, and the Sophomore—Senior game was taken by the Sophomores, 13-10. The annual Big Game between the Sophomores and Juniors went to the Juniors with a score of 17-14.

Basketball has the longest season of any sport, and Los Gatos took part in two sport days, one at Campbell and one at Los Gatos, when the Cats played host to five other schools: San Jose, Campbell, Mountain View, Palo Alto, and Santa Clara.

The Basketball captains for the year were Caroline Gibb, Freshman; Ethel Stringer, Sophomore; Dora Stindt, Junior; and Peggy Carpenter, Senior, who was also Basketball Manager.

The All-Star Basketball Team elected at the end of the year was composed of Mina Lepurin, Peggy Carpenter, Irene Stump, Helen Hellyer, Eileen Thayer, and Leila D. Merritt.

Jokes

If all the students who slept in class were placed end to end they would be much more comfortable.

Helen George: "Why the freckles on your face?"

Bill George: "I fell asleep in the shade of a screen door."

"Eliza," said a friend of the family to the old colored washwoman, "Have you seen Miss Edith's fiance?"

"No, ma'am. It ain't been in the wash yet."

Lloyd Nelson: (as they drove along a lovely road) "You look lovelier to me every minute: Do you know what that's a sign of?"

Lorraine Walton: "You're about to run out of gas."

The class had been instructed to write an essay on winter. One child's attempt read as follows:

"In winter it is very cold. Many old people die in winter, and many birds go to warmer climates also."

Mother: "Did I see you kissing that young Roberts last night?"

Beryl: "Well, Mother, he told me he had just lost an uncle and I felt so sorry for him."

Mother: "If I know anything about that young man he won't have a relative left in a week's time!"

One evening as a country boy and a city girl were strolling across a pasture they saw a cow and a calf rubbing noses in the accepted loving fashion.

"Ah," said the country boy, "that sight makes me want to do the same."

"Well, go ahead," replied the girl, "it's your cow."

Rastus, a darkey, was sent home from school the first day with the following note from the teacher:

Dear Mrs. Jones:

Please give Rastus a bath. He smells something awful.

Teacher

Dear Teacher: (said the reply)

Rastus ain't no rose. Don't smell him, larn him.
